THE CHILD IN THE MIST.
When the lord of the great and the little.

The mother whose hand shapes our clay.
Sets a child in the midst of the market.

Where the world-people chaffer all day,
Sets a child with its innocent questions.
Its flower-face dimpled and fine,
In the very heart's core of the clamor.

A thought of the Maker Divine.
And men, in their lust for dominion,
Their madness for silver and gold,
Crush the beauty and charm from that spirit.

Make the flower-face withered and old,
Bind the hands and the feet with a tether.
That childhood can never untie,
Deem not that Jehovah unheeding
Looks down from the heights of the sky.

He sees, tho we think him unseeing,
He knows when the factory wheels
Grind down to the life-blood of children.

When the poor little bond-servant kneels
In the pang of its frightful abasement;
Tho all men are deaf to its prayer,
There is coming a dark day of judgment.

And the Lord of the child will be there.
The child in the midst as we've married it.
Bent, shrunken, dull-eyed and a slave.
That clings at word and at letter,
With cries for the rest of the grave;
That our free flag unfolding above it,
So free, from the pine to the balm!
And our scarred, pallid children beneath it!

There's a jar in the tilt of our psalm.
From the mine where the midnight engulfs it.
From the mine where the clogged air is thick
With the dust of the weaving that chokes it;
From the home where it's fevered and sick
With man's toil, when God meant it for gladness,
The child in the midst, in our clay God-molded, greed-marred, calls to heaven
For the vengeance we're daring this day.

DR. CALDWELL SPOKE LAST NIGHT AT UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

"The New Psychology" proved to be the subject of a very able discourse given last night by Dr. J. W. Caldwell at the First Universalist church, a large audience having been in attendance. A professor in the theological department of Lombard college, at Galesburg, Ill., the doctor proved eminently fitted to handle the subject which he had chosen, and his discourse was a delight and revelation throughout the entire evening. He spoke in an especially masterful manner, and was not only very convincing in his argument, but bright, capable, and entertaining to a pleasing degree. Dr. Caldwell, during his stay in the city, is at the home of Mrs. T. C. Credille, whose son, it will be remembered, is a student at Lombard, where Dr. Caldwell holds an important position.

MISS MEL LEVY WON FIRST HONORS.

Miss Mel Levy was the fortunate winner of the prize at the Progressive Euchre party given on Wednesday at the Progress club. The evening was an especially pleasant one, and Miss Levy's friends are congratulating her on her good fortune.

SOCIAL CARD CLUB WITH MRS. WALTER LINDSTROM TODAY.

Today is the regular meeting day of the Social Card club, and Mrs. Walter Lindstrom is to be hostess at her hospitable home on West Government street. This well known Friday club is noted for its pleasant affairs, and the event of this afternoon will be no exception to the well established rule.

THE REV. FATHER BRADY ATTENDED SACRED HEART FESTIVAL.

The Rev. Father Brady, of St. John's Catholic church of Warrington, attended the lawn festival at the Sacred Heart church last night, having spent a pleasant hour among Father Turner's people. Father Brady is always welcomed in Pensacola, where he is the possessor of many staunch friends.

IN HONOR OF DR. ROYCE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Baars entertained Wednesday night at their beautiful place, Cordova Park, with a dinner given for Dr. Royce, pastor of Christ church. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Baars were Dr. Royce, Judge and Mrs. J. C. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Scarratt Moreno, Dr. and Mrs. Renshaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Baars, and Mr. Theo Baars.

THURSDAY MORNING BRIDGE WITH MISS CHIPLEY.

Miss Elise Chipley was hostess at the regular meeting of the Thursday Morning Bridge club yesterday, the morning having been one of pleasure to all who were present. Mrs. Waterman won first honors. The next meeting will be with Miss Meneffe, at the Country club. Members are requested to take the 10:15 car.

SAD NEWS FROM MRS. E. H. KIRBY.

Mr. E. H. Kirby received a telegram last night from his wife, who is the guest of her parents, at East Moriches, N. Y., stating that her father fell dead yesterday morning. Mrs. Kirby's misfortune will be generally regretted by her large number of local friends, as she is well known and held in high esteem here. She is accompanied on her trip by her daughter, Miss Florence. Further news of the deplorable affair is being anxiously awaited.

O'NEILL-SIMMONS WEDDING LAST NIGHT.

The marriage of Miss Sallie O'Neill and Mr. James Reilly Simmons took place last night, the Rev. J. W. Senterfitt officiating. The young people are both well and most favorably known locally, and the news of their marriage will be interesting to their large number of friends. Miss O'Neill is one of the popular girls of the city, and Mr. Simmons is connected with the local police force. They will be at home to their friends on West Romana street.

NEW CITY FLINCH MEETS WITH MRS. WYLLIE McDAVID.

A delightful meeting of the New City Flinch club took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wyllie McDavid, of Lakeview avenue, the hostess having been assisted by her sisters, the Misses Duncan. The beautiful home was made especially attractive with floral effects, every feature of the afternoon having been pleasing and very appropriate to the May day meeting of this well known club. There were four tables of Flinch players, the refreshments having been cream, cake and delicious home-made candy. The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. A. Bora on Stoddard avenue.

PRETTY SENTIMENT ENTWINED ABOUT U. D. C. PICNIC.

There is an especially pretty sentiment entwined about the plans for the U. D. C. picnic which is to occur on Thursday night, when the Daughters will combine efforts to give the grand old boys in grey one of the bright spots in the routine of the year, and to leave no moment of the day bereft of some mark of interest to the honored guests of the occasion. It's a worthy, beautiful effort, too, this coming occasion, and one which is thoroughly appreciated by the veterans, who know that every Daughter of the Confederacy deems it a pleasant duty indeed to scatter what garlands she may down the declining paths of the glorious hey-day of life, to the slanting sun glints which are showing now, a harbinger of worlds and conquests yet to come.

The entire day, as has been announced, will be given over to pleasurable pursuits, and the evening will be one of unusual interest when it is considered that the eclipse of the moon will be viewed from sweet southern twilight over waters that are limpid and cool and witching in their magic charm.

The Daughters, in truth, could not have well chosen more beautiful setting for the event of Thursday, and much loving interest is being taken in events as they are to transpire.

AT THE SACRED HEART LAST NIGHT.

Last night witnessed the close of the fine lawn festival which has been taking place on the Sacred Heart grounds during the past two days, success having crowned the worthy and very novel efforts in a most satisfactory degree. Crowds thronged the place until a late hour, there having been many delightful features planned for the entertainment of those who were present. The musical features of the evening, which were exceptionally meritorious, were in the hands of Prof. Seel's orchestra and the Knights of Columbus Glee club, every number having been very well received, and worthy of particular mention, the following numbers having comprised the program:

1. Orchestra.
- (a) Tower of London, Qumann.
- (b) March Grottesque, Marcelline.
2. Male Chorus: Forsaken, Koschat.
3. Cornet Solo, selected, Sig. Francesco Palatan.
4. Overture, Rose l'Amour, orchestra.
5. Baritone Solo, selected, Mr. Gerald Quina.
6. Eleanor Robson March, orchestra.
7. Sliding John, A Trombone Sneeze.
8. Male Chorus.
- (a) What Beams so Brightly, Krutzer.
- (b) Give Me the Waltz Boys.
9. Grand Finale, orchestra.

The huge 37-pound stick of candy presented by Miss Sadie McHugh was carried off by Mrs. Jos. Quina.

IN HONOR OF MRS. R. H. HYER.

The following appears in a recent issue of the Eufula Daily Times, and will be of interest here:

Saturday afternoon the elegant (Dean home on North Broadway street) was the scene of one of the most beautiful functions ever given in this city, when Mrs. L. Y. Dean and her daughters, Mesdames J. B. Reese, T. L. Moore and C. K. Hartzell, entertained in honor of Mrs. Robert Hyer of Pensacola, Fla. At the imposing entrance beneath a blaze of Chautauqua colors, orange and black, little Misses Moore and Hyer received cards and on the enclosed porch, amid a glow of Nasturtiums and Japanese decorations Miss Hyer and Nana Dent served punch. In the drawing room where the receiving party stood, exquisite roses in profusion bloomed everywhere. Mrs. E. T. Long played during the calling hours, many of her beautiful selections and some of Eufula's most splendid voices added to the charm of the hour, among them Mrs. O. S. Williams, Mrs. C. S. McDowell, Jr., and Mrs. C. G. Caldwell. In the south drawing room, where Misses Marjorie Long, Marie Locke, Catherine Dent and Nettie Freeman served delicious refreshments, the decorations were artistic beyond description. Green bowls and tall cut glass vases held daisies, their white pearls and golden hearts massed amid feathery "maiden hair" ferns. This room reminded one of fairy land. In the spacious hallway, where Mesdames C. A. Locke, Ida Foy Pitts and E. Y. Dent greeted the guests, all was varied green in lovely shades. Magnificent ferns and palms stood out in bold relief against hand-some furnishings and the glow of tinted lights made a scene of rare beauty. Mrs. Hyer, the honored guest, is a beautiful woman with the most charming grace. She wore an exquisite satin and lace toilette. Mrs. Lear wore pearl grey silk, Mrs. Moor, and Mrs. Harzill white satin, and Mrs. Reese sea shell pink satin. A group of as charming or as handsomely attired women is seldom ever seen. The reception was beautiful, brilliant and every way delightful.

TOUCHING TRIBUTE TO THE LATE SENATOR WILLIAM JAMES BRYAN.

Those who had the pleasure of personally meeting the late Senator William J. Bryan, of Florida, when a few months previous to his death he visited this city to meet the people and to view the harbor, which he did in company with the members of the Chamber of Commerce, will learn with sympathetic interest that a picture of Florida's late lamented "Boy senator" has been presented to Bryan hall at the Florida State college for Women, where it has been installed with appropriate and touching ceremonies. The picture is a gift of Hon. Nathan Bryan, brother of the beloved dead.

LADIES CONDUCTED FINE PICNIC AT MAGNOLIA BLUFF YESTERDAY.

Despite the threatening aspect of the weather, crowds were present yesterday afternoon at the picnic given at Magnolia Bluff by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the B. of L. E., a number of interesting events having been planned for the entertainment of those who were present. Postponed from Tuesday afternoon, the event appeared to have only increased in interest, dancing, boating, bathing, and fish chowder being among the features of the afternoon and evening, all present having been enthusiastic over the treatment received at the hands of this worthy organization. The ladies are to be congratulated with regard to the success of the affair, which proved one of the most pleasant events which has so far occurred this season.

MUCH DISAPPOINTMENT FELT WITH REGARD TO GOLF RESULTS.

Enthusiasm had reached a high pitch around the Osceola club and in local golf circles generally when the news was flashed down the country on Tuesday night that Mr. Ellis Knowles had come out victorious in the preliminaries at the Memphis Golf Tournament, thus putting him in direct line for the Southern golf tournament which is to be decided. An unfortunate error occurring, however, caused by a miscount which Knowles himself discovered, changed the score to a tie between himself and Jack Edrington, the Memphis champion. In the 18 hole play off ordered by the committee, Edrington won with 88 against Knowles's 83. There have been many here who have been watching events with interest, and genuine regret is felt as to the unfortunate occurrence which has deprived Pensacola of the coveted championship.

JUDGES OF GOLD MEDAL CONTEST.

This evening will be influenced by an intellectual, sentimental and social significance which will be directly traceable to the faculty of the Boys' High School and its students, who under their professor, Robert A. Mickle, are enlisted in the gold medal contests, the distinctions in which are to be carefully weighed by the following judges: Dr. Matthew Brewster, Dr. Irwin Craighead, Hon. Stewart Brooks, Dr. McCormick and Mr. Sydney Prince. There is room in our hearts for each of us to inspire a thoughtful, sincere and grateful personal tribute to the work of the year of the young people, who are the coming men of Mobile and who are to represent its intellect in the literature, music and the world of sports.

Following the exercises and presentation of medals a hop will be given and the names of the chaperones of the evening as given are Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Brewster, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin Craighead, Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Inge, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. John Moulton, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Leinhardt, Mrs. Electra Semmer, Colston, Mrs. Irene Mickle, Miss Edith Duffy, Miss Mary Cockrill, Miss Aline Bright, Miss Edith Marechal, Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Peterson, Mrs. E. L. Russell and Mrs. George W. Coates. The contest and hop are both to be held at German Relief Hall at 8 o'clock. Yesterday's Mobile item.
